

D'Ouwe Werf

Established in 1802, d'Ouwe Werf is South Africa's oldest existing inn and has defined hospitality and fine dining for centuries. Situated in the historical core of the university town of Stellenbosch, only 45km from Cape Town, 20km from the sea and surrounded by beautiful mountains.

The inn consists of 31 en-suite bedrooms which are individually styled with antiques collected over the years.

A myriad shops, museums, art galleries and beautiful examples of Cape Dutch architecture are within easy walking distance of the hotel. Guests can sit back and sip sundowners in the tranquility of a lovely verdant garden, or enjoy a dip in the heated swimming pool while others bask in the sun on the wooden deck or patio. And for all those who feel a bit more energetic, there are superb golf courses in close proximity to the town, guided historical village walks, wine tours and a variety of other activities that can be arranged from the hotel.

